March Talks

March 3rd: Greg Tamblyn “The Sacred and the Silly”

Mystics, prophets, saints, and psychologists have all told us that happiness lies in the NOW. Many of us in the West have forgotten where that is. Silliness, play, humor, and laughter are profound ways to get there.

Special Music: Greg Tamblyn

March 10th: Rev. Jeniffer Hutchins “Prayer Song”

A popular song in Unity begins with the lyrics, “our thoughts are prayers, and we are always praying.” Together we will explore the concept of prayer through the lens of this song. What does it mean to pray? How do our everyday thoughts influence our lives? And how can we consciously cultivate a higher consciousness? Start your week on an inspirational note and leave with a song of prayer in your heart.

Special Music: Joy Zimmerman

March 17th: Kelley Hunt “Happy St. Patrick’s Day”

On this day many can identify with and celebrate their Irish heritage. St. Patrick’s legacy continues with both myth and fact, including examples of how it reflects Unity Principles today

Special Music: Kelley Hunt

March Talks

March 24th: Jay Pryor "Letting Go of Doubt"

Learning to doubt your doubts is a practice to master.

Special Music: Chris Hudson

March 31st: Rev. Steffany Barton "The Womb in the Tomb"

Join Steffany as she inspires you to see past the darkness of loss and into the Light of Rebirth. Let this Easter be the day you rise and shine.
