June Talks

June 2nd: Rev. Mary Wood “No Other Way”

Myrtle Fillmore has always been thought of as the "Mother of Unity." However, lately I think there's someone else who could also be called a "mother of Unity" and that is Martha Smock. Let's learn about who she was and what healing her life and the way she lived brings to us.

Special Music: Kathryn Lorenzen

June 9th: Rev. Jen Hutchins “What a Wonderful World”

Rev. Jen Hutchins joins us for a creative look at spiritual practice. From trees of green to skies of blue, Louis Armstrong's song, "What a Wonderful World" inspires us to behold the good in the world. It is a reminder that gratitude has the power to lift our spirits and reawaken us to the presence of God in all things.

Special Music: Amanda Hughey

June 16th: Phil Roger “Going Further into Fathers”

The word "Father" has many meanings. Obviously, we all have a biological father. As unifying as this may be, our experiences of fathering and being fathered are infinitely varied. However, "Father" goes way beyond parenting so let's delve further into this multifaceted topic.

Special Music: Greg Peligreen

*Evolutions: Sacred Sound Lab will be on 5th Sunday for June.
Join us June 30th at 1:30 pm*

June Talks

June 23rd: Cindy Smarsh “The Power of Thought”

One of the most healing spiritual practices you can adopt is recognizing the power of your own thoughts and being mindful of how you think, what you think, and the effects of those patterns. Whenever you are suffering, the first place to look is at what you are thinking and then learn how to shift those thoughts so you can feel better.

Extended Meditation with Jeff Klein

June 30th: Robin Goff, LUT “The Brass Ring”

Let's talk about the how, what, and why of manifesting. It is something we are all doing all the time, but perhaps it can be helpful to get more specific with our intentions .

Special Music: Lana Maree Haas
